

COMMONWEALTH PRIVACY AMENDMENT (PRIVATE SECTOR) ACT 2000

Standard Collection Notice: This statement is provided to you by the school and specifically itemises the reasons for collecting information about students and their families and the way in which that information will be used by the school.

1. This School (and the Catholic Education Office, Sydney) collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents or guardians before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the School. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the School to provide schooling for your daughter.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the School's legal obligations, particularly to enable the School to discharge its duty of care.
3. Certain laws governing or relating to the operation of schools require that certain information is collected. These include Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the National Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. We may ask you to provide medical reports about students from time to time.
5. The school from time to time discloses personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes. This includes disclosure to other schools, government departments, Catholic Education Office Sydney, the Catholic Education Commission, NSW, your local diocese and the parish, Schools within other Dioceses/other Diocesan offices, medical practitioners, and people providing services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, coaches, volunteers and counsellors.
6. If we do not obtain the information referred to above we may not be able to enroll or continue the enrolment of your daughter.
7. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and other news is published in School newsletters, magazines and on our website.
8. Parents may seek access to personal information collected about them and their daughter by contacting the School. Students may also seek access to personal information about them. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to the student, or where students have provided information in confidence.
9. As you may know the School from time to time engages in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
10. We may include your contact, details in a class list and School directory (where, in general, access is limited to school staff).
11. If you provide the School with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the School and why, that they can access that information if they wish and that the School does not usually disclose the information to third parties.
